

BABBLES

Mr. Abernethy:

The Senior Class of 1957-58 wishes to present
our annual to you as an appreciation of your guidance and advice you have given us throughout our high school years.

Yours sincerely,
Lucy L. Terry,
Senior Class President.

The Senior Class

Of

Kings Creek High School

Proudly Presents

The

1958 Edition

Of

BABBLES

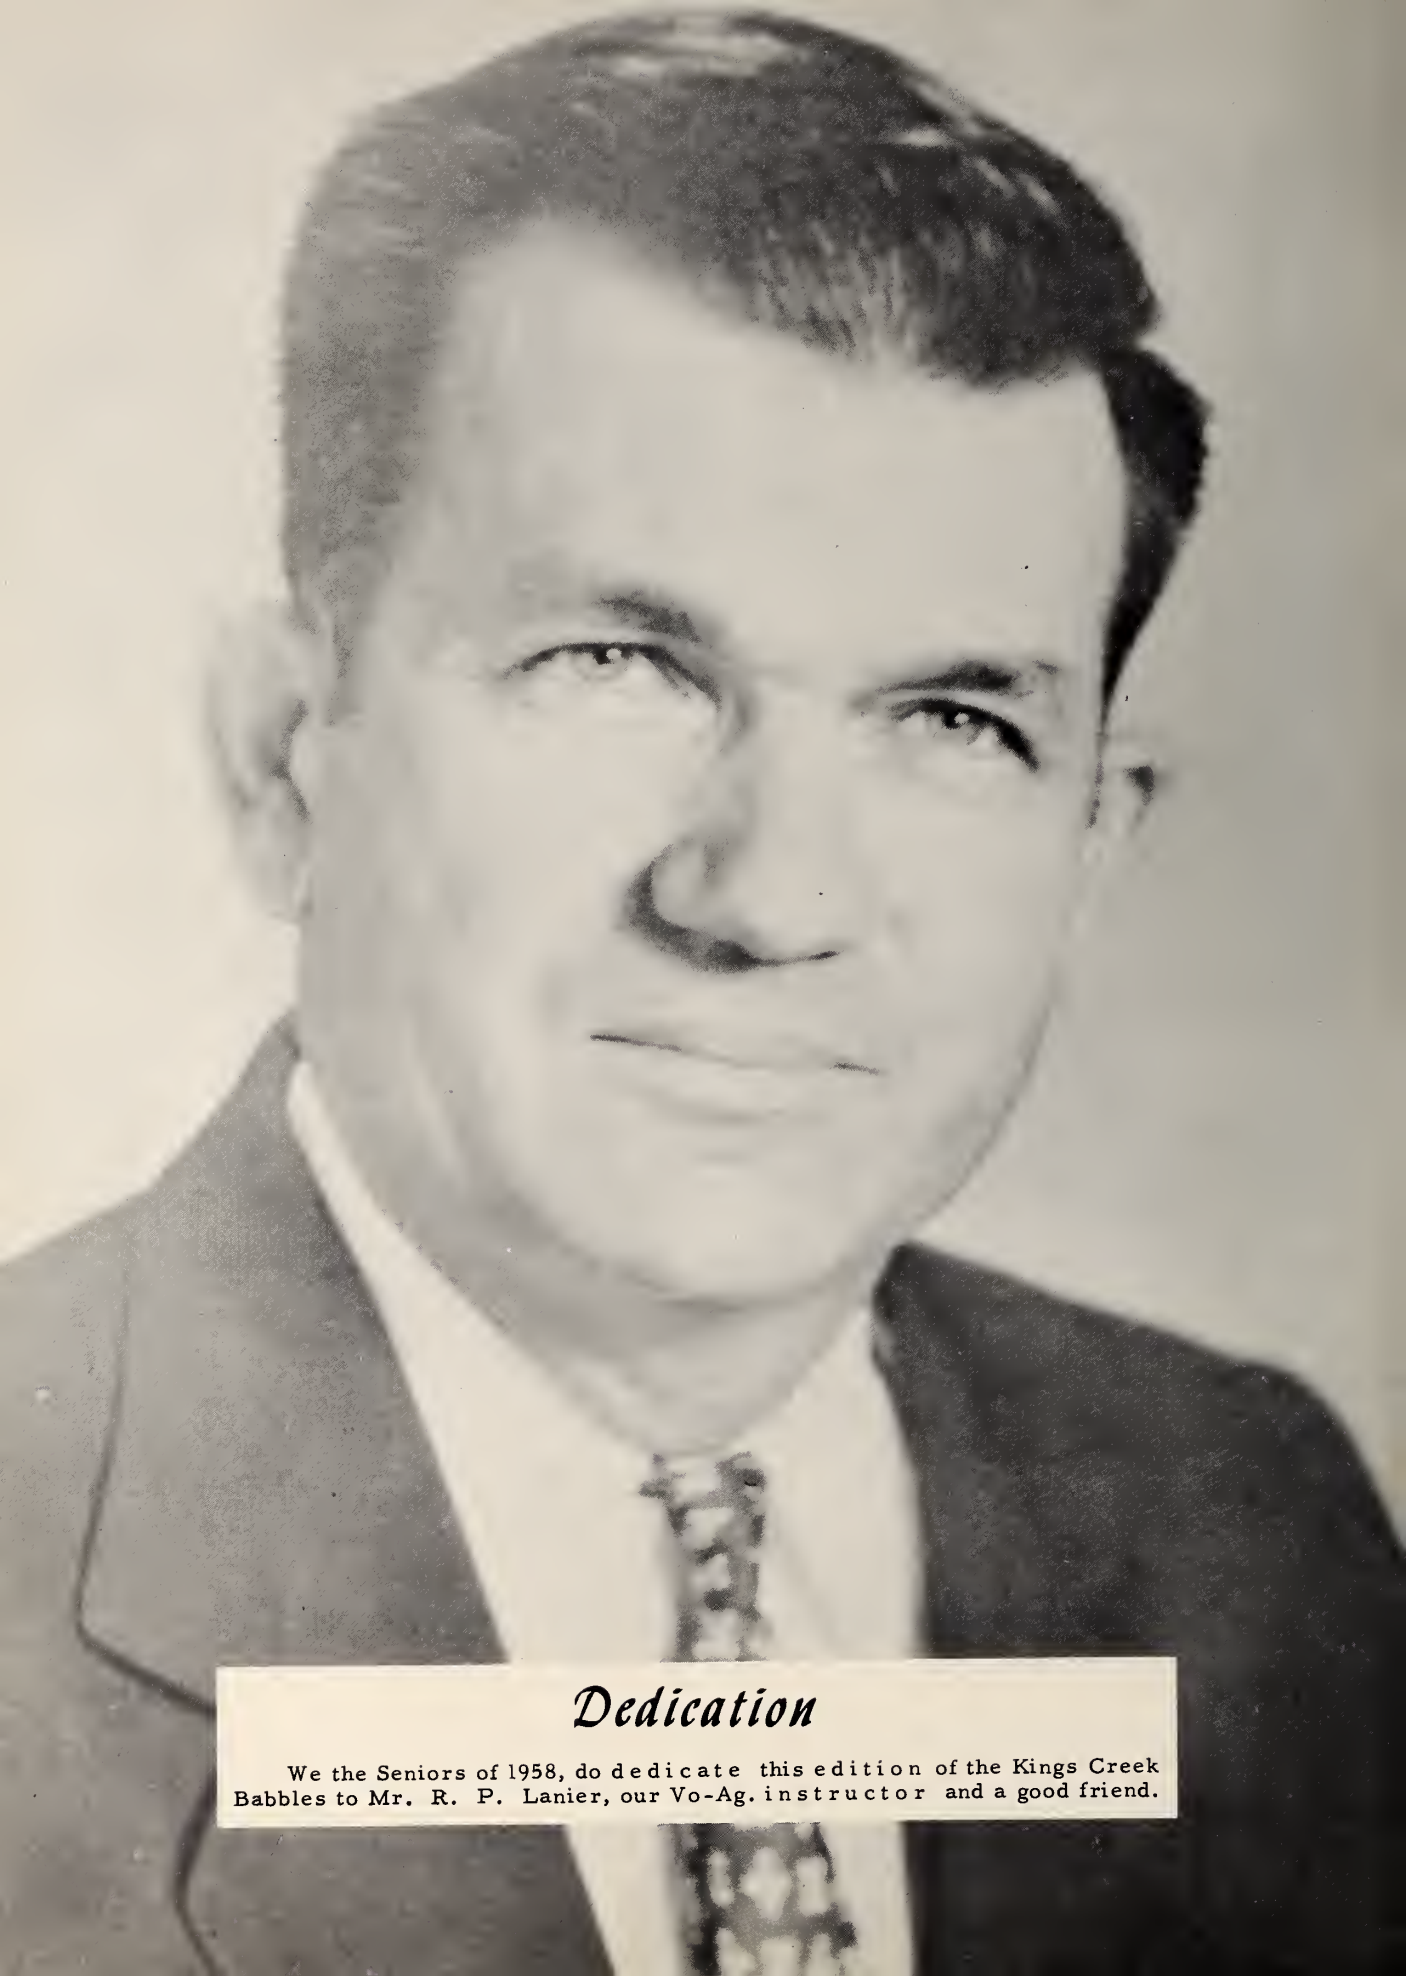

Alma Mater

In the midst of Caldwell County,
Nestled in the hills,
Stands our dear old Kings Creek High School
That we love so well.

Hail to the, O'Kings Creek Vikings,
Whom we've loved so long;
We will ever love you truly
As we sing this song.

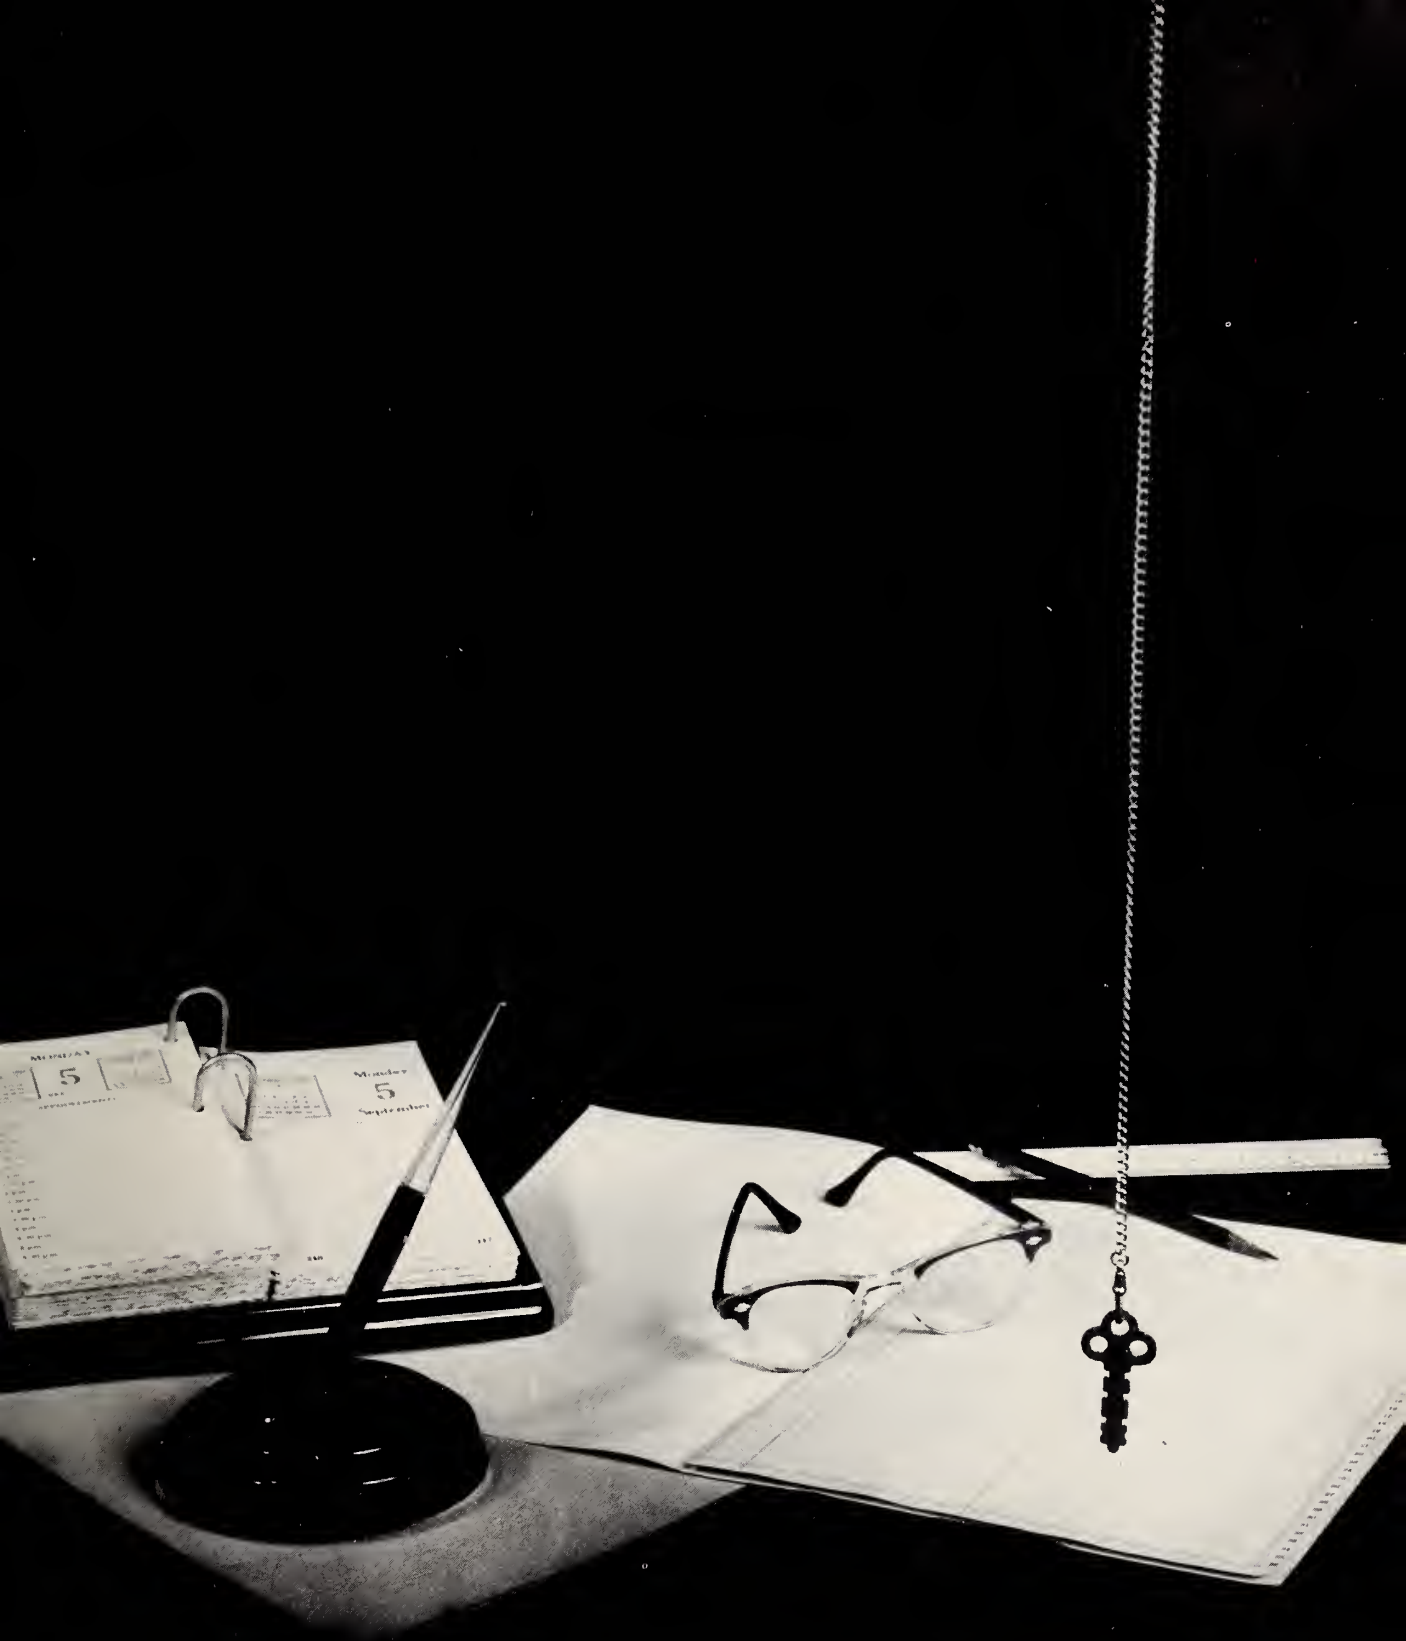

We will ever hold you dearly
When we say good-bye;
We will ever be devoted
To dear Kings Creek High.

Chorus:
Sound its praises evermore;
Ring them loud and clear.
Hail to thee, our alma mater,
That we love so dear.

Dedication

We the Seniors of 1958, do dedicate this edition of the Kings Creek Babbles to Mr. R. P. Lanier, our Vo-Ag. instructor and a good friend.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. J. M. LAXTON, Principal

I wish to commend and to congratulate the class of 1958 for its presentation of the activities and school spirit of Kings Creek High School through the medium of this edition of "Babbles".

Last Will And Testament

We the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-eight being sound of mind and strong body, having attained ample knowledge to graduate and take up the toils and hardships of life, do hereby declare and make this our last will and testament.

To Mr. Laxton, our faithful principal, we leave our most humble thanks for all the things he has done for us. His strong advice and sound instructions will live in our memory always.

To our teachers, we leave our deepest thanks for the instructions they had given us and the trouble they have taken to help us in our hard pull for an education.

I, Nancy Arms, do will my pony tail to Ruth Saunders.

I, Joyce Barlow, do will my Homecoming Queen Title to the girl who's boyfriend will buy it.

I, Opal Bryant, do will my flirty ways to Caroline Shufford.

I, Geraldine Cline, do will my red hair to Ann Barlowe.

I, Shirley Dillard, do will my long brown hair to Rachel Pearson.

I, Billie Sue Dula, do will my beautiful red hair to a girl that will have it.

I, Winnie Dula, do will my ability to become a marshall to Horward Walker.

I, Janice Parker, do will my wiggly ways in class to Frances St. John.

I, Elizabeth Pearson, do will my talent to chew gum to Tory Ballew.

I, Carolyn Perry, do will my studious ways to Norma Blevins.

I, Inez Poole, do will my short brown hair to Marion Ragsdale.

I, Ava Lee Walker, do will my blue-jeans and slopy shirt to Mrs. Farthing.

I, Shirley Walker, do will my polite ways to Jean Austin.

I, Sylvia Jean Walker, do will my little stature and my loud ways to Barbara Roberts.

I, Sylvia Jean Johnson, do will my ability to get most popular to Jeanette Barlowe.

I, Marie Coffey, do will my position as librarian, to Janice Carlton.

I, Irene Kincaid, do will my quiteness to Elaine Roberts.

I, Lois Hayes, do will my shortness to the tallest girl in the Junior Class.

I, Charles Creger, do will my position of fullback to Vernon Cline.

I, Curtiss Livingston, do will my red hair to Mr. Laxton.

I, Joe McMillon, do will my blond hair to Mr. Hayes.

I, Bobby Price, do will my position of leftend to Roger Hollar.

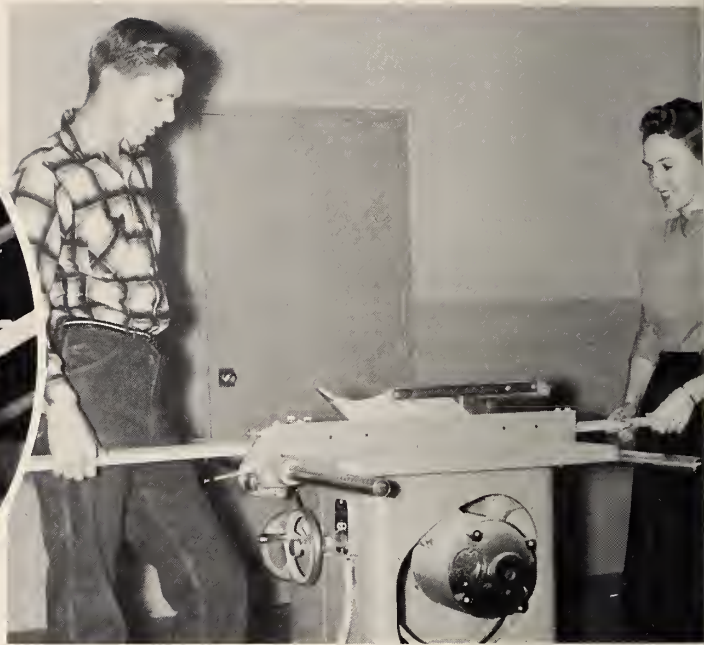

I, Paul Richards, do will my ability to get along with girls to any crazy boy.

I, Jerry Sudderth, do will my ability to crack jokes to Jimmy Goble.
